5 What do the experts say about Life Planning and Goal Setting?

Dr. Ross Greenberg, Chairman, Business Ventures

Financial & Estate Plans

2. We also see people that fail to plan in these areas and the evidence is a little more evident isn't it?
3. The most important analogy I can make is to relate your life to your home. Would you continue to live another day in your home if you found out that the builder experimented on your home and built it without a plan? Have I made a case for planning yet?
4. Let's take a look at why we don't plan as good as we should...

So Why Don't We Plan?
